
Clare Gael's Bereaved

The death has occurred at her residence, Bridgetown, Clare, of Mrs. Mary Hyson, mother of Edward Hyson, creamery manager, and of Michael and Martin Hyson, well known business.

Mrs. Hyson suffered a good deal during the Black and Tan period, when her house was burnt down and her sons ill-treated for the part they took in the struggle for independence.
