

Limerick Jesuit Dead

---

Late Rev E Spillane, S.J.

Rev Ernest Spillane, S.J., whose death has occurred at the age of 62, was a native of Limerick, his father being the late Wm Spillane, the well-known tobacco firm. He was educated at the Jesuit College in Limerick, and in 1892 entered the Society of Jesus.

After his novitiate at Miltown Park he studied philosophy in a French house of the Order at Jersey, and after theology at Miltown was ordained by the late Archbishop Walsh in 1908.

Father Spillane was Vice-Rector at Mungret and Tuamabeg Colleges.

He was spiritual director of the Jesuit novitiate at St Mary's, Emo, Portlannington, since 1930, the year on which the novitiate was transferred to St Mary's.