
Found Drowned

Fate of Clare Publican

An inquest was held at Sixmilebridge, county Clare, on the body of Daniel Reddan (39) a local publican, whose body was found in a millstream on Friday morning. Deceased was married and had five children.

The jury found that death was due to asphyxia, following accidental drowning.
