

County Limerick Fatality

Fatal Accident Near Rathkeale

James Quaid, a farmer, of Croagh, Rathkeale, was fatally injured and a companion, Wm Madden, also of Croagh, was seriously injured when a motor car in which they were driving skidded on the Rathkeale-Limerick road on Friday evening. The car crashed against the fence, both men being pitched out on the road, where they were found by a passing motorist. Quaid received a broken neck and died.
