Woman Killed

Motoring Accident Near City

A very sad fatality occurred at Clare Street, on Thursday night, when a woman, Mrs. Mary O'Halloran (nee Creamer) aged 50, lost her life. It is stated deceased was crossing the road at the time when she was struck by a motor car driven by a commercial traveller named Mr. G. T. Meany, who later took the badly injured woman to Barrington's Hospital. She was found dead on admission. An inquest was opened on Friday and adjourned after identification and medical evidence was given.
