

Death of Limerick Octogenarian

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Patrick Quilligan, Lower Park, Limerick, which occurred on October 28th., after a long illness. Deceased was a life-long Nationalist and a widely-read man, and could recall the stirring events of his time with great exactness. He was highly respected and esteemed not only in his native city but throughout Clare and Tipperary, where he was widely known. The funeral from St. Patrick's Church to St. Patrick's Cemetery was largely attended. The clergy present were:—Voc'y Rev. James O'Leary, P.F., St. Patrick's; Rev. Father Godfrey, C.C., do.
