

Limerick Gael's Funeral

Mr J Lucey, aged 34, formerly of Kilfinane, county Limerick, was buried at Ballinagaddy during the past week. He died in London where he had been on business for a short time. He was a prominent hurler, and Kilfinane comrades met the remains and escorted them with hurleys to the graveyard. Similar honour was given at the brother's (Michael) funeral 18 months ago.

Mr D. F. O'Shaughnessy proposed, and Mr M. F. O'Keefe seconded, a vote of sympathy at a meeting of Kilfinane Hurling Club.
