

The Late Mrs. B. O'Sullivan

A most representative cortege, composed of all classes of the citizens, attended the funeral obsequies of Mrs B. O'Sullivan, relict of the late Mr Daniel O'Sullivan, founder of the building-firm of Messrs D. O'Sullivan and Sons, Limerick, and mother of Mr T F O'Sullivan, Harbour Engineer, Limerick. Requiem High Mass for the repose of the deceased's lady's soul was celebrated prior to the funeral.

The chief mourners were—Messrs John, Francis, James, Thomas, Joseph, Alfred and Brendan O'Sullivan (sons); Mrs P MacDonagh (daughter); Mrs M Collins (sister), Mrs M O'Sullivan, Mrs Jack, Mrs Francis, Mrs James, Mrs Thomas and Mrs Joseph O'Sullivan (daughters-in-law); Mr P MacDonagh (son-in-law).

The clergy present were—Rev Father Fitzpatrick, A.M., St Michael's; Rev W J Carroll, O.C.; Rev Dr J Cowper, O.C., do; Rev C Mortalty, O.C., do; Very Rev J Gubbins, S.J., Rector, Limerick; Rev W K Guinane, S.J.; Rev C McDonnell, O.S.S.B.; Rev M Fox, O.S.B.; Rev R McCarty, O.C.; Rev T Malvinill, O.C.; Rev J B O'Donoghue, O.S.A.