

linisters of both countries, how-t at the house of Mr. J. W. Du-Eire High Commissioner, at St. ood, London, for lunch. mehnon was apparently a very affair, which lasted over an amuel Hoare, the Home Secreo is one of the British delegates, ble to attend.

the luncheon, the Prime Minis-Sir John Simon left together. mberlain chatted with Mr. Dud shook hands warmly with him é drove to the House of Com-explained that the conference uld not be held as such to-day the necessity of Mr. Chamber-d Mr. Morrison, Minister for re, being in their places in ent for the censure debate.

arrangements for the full con-have not yet been made. It anged, however, that Mr. De and Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, ish Minister for the Dominions, a long talk yesterday, would their preliminary conversation This was taking place at Mr. s hotel at four o'clock.

iously the Irish Ministers—Mr nass and Dr. James Ryan—who puted to participate in the of Commons meeting, met Mr. tanley, President of the Board , at the House.

AT THEY WILL DISCUSS.

he conference meets, Trade, Find Defence are amongst the matters to be discussed since inal talks were suspended on 19th.

ish experts who had remained on have had several meetings ish experts, and sufficient pro-been made to justify more de-amination of the points under

MENTS PLANS CHANGED.

ish crisis led to the postpone-Mr. de Valera's personal call, e was to have made on the inister at Downing Street this but this did not prevent the taking place at the residence igh Commissioner, at which the with the exception of Sir loare, were present.

tion for a clerkship be given the position. She was only three marks behind the successful candidate, and, in his opinion, it would save expense in holding an examination.

Mr. O'Donnell seconded.

Mr. Walsh said the children of the ratepayers of the county ought to get a fair chance of competing for any position going, and he proposed that a new examination be held.

Mr. Power seconded.

Mr. McAuliffe—That is very unfair.

Mr. O'Donnell—You must remember that out of twenty candidates in the last examination only three girls qualified.

Mr. Hannon—Is there a resolution on the books that all positions be filled by competitive examination?

The Secretary—No.

A vote was then taken and Mr. Walsh's amendment was lost by 14 votes to 9.

DEATH OF MRS. J. SEXTON

Limerick Family Bereaved

We announce with deep regret the death of Mrs. Josephine Sexton, widow of the late Mr. A. J. Sexton, auctioneer, Limerick, which occurred at her residence, 88 O'Connell Street, on Monday morning. The deceased lady had not been in the best of health for some time past. She passed away deeply mourned by her family and a large circle of friends.

The late Mrs. Sexton was well known in Limerick, where she lived for the greater part of her life. She was held in the highest esteem and respect by all classes of the community, and the deepest sympathy, in which we fully join, is extended to her sons, Mr. A. J. Sexton, auctioneer, and Mr. J. J. Sexton, solicitor, to her daughters and other relatives in their bereavement.

The remains will be removed to St.
Michael's Church this evening at 8 o'clock, and the interment will take place to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery at 11.15 a.m. to-morrow, following Requiem Mass at 10.30 a.m.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY

Incident in Mary Street

A daring attempt to rob a publichouse in Athlunkard St. was made on Monday

The Chairman said the business of the meeting delegates to the Munster be held in Limerick on 5

On the proposition hue, the following were W. P. Clifford (Chair-
phreys (Vice-Chairman), (Treasurer), D. Laniga
Rev. Fr. Punch, and Mr.

A letter was read from
of the Cork Athletic Gr-tee, asking the Board Limerick playing a tour against Cork on the 20th of the funds of the grou-
The Chairman said the County Board had promia good while ago, and it now appeared to be the date.

The Board unanimously the fixture on the date s

A letter was read from G.A.A. Club, Kenmare, ir-merick team to participanament on June 21st, wh-held to defray the expens-Fr. Breen Memorial Park

The Chairman said the very worthy one, and L-be glad to give all possi-The difficulty, however, Munster Convention woulably make fixtures for should that be the case I not visit Kenmare.

The Board decided to atation provisionally.

Mr. Lyddy asked the there was any possibility ning a tournament in aid Grounds at Limerick.

THE NATIONAL I.

The Chairman said he prospect of holding a tour-moment with any hop-Tournaments held in Lime-years had not been sucially. Limerick people to witnessing big matches mond Feis Tournament w-year, and there was not other. The National I also interfered. In that Chairman thought that League games were no purpose for which they
—to encourage the les-counties. The prominent ties were not fielding the and he felt that, if the Lea-regarded in that light the scrapped the better it woucounties which up to now