DEATH OF MR J. E. BARRY

Limerick Family Bereaved.

It is with deep regret that we announce the death, which occurred yesterday, of Mr Jack Barry, eldest son of Mr and Mrs J E Barry, Lansdowne Terrace, Limerick. The deceased, whose death occurred following an operation, was a young man in the prime of life, and his death at the early age of 26 years has come as a profound shock to his parents, brothers, and sisters, and a large circle of friends. His talents won for him the important post of Manager of Messrs Woolworth and Co, Clonmel, where his genial manner won him a host of friends. He took an active part in the social life of that town, and was a prominent member of the Tennis and Hockey Clubs.

To his bereaved family we tender our deepest sympathy in their sad loss.

FORMER COUNTY INSPECTOR

Death of Mr. H.E. Yates

The death has occurred at Bolart, Dorchester, of Mr. Henry E. Wingfield Yates, a former County Inspector of the R.I.C., and eldest son of the late General Peel Yates, Royal Artillery.

The late Mr. Yates was County Inspector in Limerick from 1906 to 1920. He was a well known and popular figure in the hunting field, and despite all the disturbances of his later years, continued to be one of the most popular and respected men in County Limerick when he retired. No doubt many of the older generation will remember this popular Limerick man, whose son, Major L. Peel Yates, now holds the important post of Chief Constable of Dorset.
