

IN OF CRUELTY CHILDREN.

SPLENDID WORK

at Limerick Meeting for Support

the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children held yesterday, gave an interesting address on the and expressed satisfaction that the District was giving strong financial support.

(T.D.) dealt with by Inspector McCarthy showed an increase of 180 over last year. In that connection he wished to pay tribute to the excellent work Inspector McCarthy was doing. Since he came to the Branch he had shown himself ever tactful and adaptable to circumstances. He hoped that the Inspector would remain many years to continue his fine work. (Applause.)

Mr. Burdell said the financial position was very encouraging. He appealed to those present to take an interest in the work of the Society. Without the ladies present, who were doing splendid voluntary work, the Society could not exist, and to them the Society owed sincere thanks for their unfailing help and assistance. They were also very grateful to Mr. J. J. Dodds, solicitor, the new Hon. Secretary of cases, to the city and county public authorities for their willing co-operation, and to Chief Superintendent Murphy, Limerick, who was a real friend and who had so many times gone out of his way to show his sympathy and interest. They were also deeply grateful for the valuable co-operation they received from the local Press, which was to be commended on its public spirit and sympathy in a good cause. The nature of the Society's work necessitated that it be done quietly and they had to depend on the sympathy and co-operation of the Press throughout the country, which was always available. The speaker went on to outline several cases of cruelty and ill-treatment of children in Limerick district, and said that if the public knew of some of the cases that came under the Inspector's notice they would realise how much the Society was needed. Their aim was to better the lot of unfortunate children and to give them a proper chance in life. The work in the future was to be most promising very satisfactory, but they needed much more support.

On the proposition of Mrs. O'Brien-Kelly, the reports were unanimously adopted.

MAYOR'S TRIBUTE.

The Mayor paid a warm tribute to the work Lady Nash was doing, and said she was to be highly commended for her many charitable activities. He complimented Mr. Burdell on a most interesting address, and concurred in his remarks regarding Inspector McCarthy. He said he was very pleased to attend the meeting and give his support to a really valuable movement. The work of the Society deserved the strongest support and encouragement of the citizens.

Mr. J. H. Roche proposed the re-election of the outgoing Committee, and said that they had done their work so
