

s should make an outcry retrograde proposal.

Mr. supporting, said that it would be a scandal if St. John's and Barrington's Hospitals were scrapped. When these institutions were built citizens would realize their St. John's and Barrington's Lent cases without demur.

T.D., said that no effort was spared to defeat the proposal in question. He proposed that a deputation be sent to the Minister. This was agreed to, and the deputation was appointed on the deputation, Ald. Reidy, Messrs M. Casey.

IN POOL OF BLOOD conscious Man.

in Lane at Nenagh

on Tuesday night Mr. Denis commercial traveller, who represents Messrs. John Quinn & merchants, Limerick, was in unconscious condition, with his head on the side of his head, off Castle Street, Nenagh, Bachelor's Walk.

pool of blood marked the place he was found. A woman a short distance away made enquiry as she was coming down the street. The Guards were at once called, arriving quickly on the scene. The unfortunate man conveyed by ambulance to Nenagh Hospital, as attended to by Dr. Courtal officer of the institution, Father Ryan, C.C.

It was discovered from a pocket found in his pocket. It appeared he had a seizure and struck his head against a paving stone in the wall at the place he was found.

At the hospital next morning he regained consciousness. Mr. a native of Ballymackey, from Nenagh.

further contributions I hope to give readers what I trust will be a faithful impression of my experiences of the plays and players I have been privileged to see in a period of forty years at the Theatre Royal, as well as other events. These will not necessarily be in chronological order, but taken at random.

FUNERAL OF MRS J. READY

After Requiem Mass in St. John's Cathedral this morning, the funeral of the late Mrs. Ready, Sunnyside, Janesboro' Avenue took place to Mount St. Laurence Cemetery. The deceased lady was wife of Mr. William Ready, Chief Clerk of the Goods Department, Great Southern Railways Company. She had been in impaired health for a considerable time, and recently her condition took a serious turn, and she passed away peacefully on Tuesday. Before marriage Mrs. Ready, who was a native of Bandon, held the responsible position of lady's cutter at Messrs. Canhock and Co., where she enjoyed the esteem and respect of the directors, management, and staff as she did among a wide circle of friends. To her husband and sisters and brothers sincere condolence is given in their sorrow.

The remains were removed to the Cathedral at 8 o'clock last night, and were escorted by a large body of mourners.

The funeral cortège this morning was large and representative, and testified to the affection in which the deceased was held and the sympathy felt for her husband and family in their bereavement.

The chief mourners were:—William Ready (husband); George, William, and Richard Gamble Bandon (brothers); Miss M. Gamble and Mrs. J. O'Donnell (sisters); John O'Donnell (brother-in-law); Mrs. G. Gamble and Mrs. R. Gamble (sisters-in-law); Kitty, Christina, Eileen Gamble, and Mrs. W. Ready (nieces); John Gamble, Ronald O'Donnell, and William Ready (nephews).

Ideal spring weather is experienced at Glin for some days past, and farmers and plot holders are busy tilling.

The Manager then read a letter which had passed between the Society before the strike was served. The first letter the increase was received on February 19th, and on February 14th, considered all aspects, a reply rejecting the demand. The reply was received on the 7th inst.

REGRETABLE AND OFFENSIVE

Mr. Keyes said he did not discuss the merits or demerits of the matter, but he felt very strongly the letter sent by the Manager regarding the strike notice struck a bad impression of Trade Unionism. He considered that the letter was unbecoming and offensive and a challenge to collective action on the part of an organised body of workers. Trade Unionist he protest against the letter. The Manager has no right to demand from the men of the men's Union an insurance of their intention to strongly protest against what he regarded as a Mussolini attitude.

Mr. Casey said the men worked six days a week, and their wages be regarded as generous.

WARNING.

Manager—I want to say that I object to the remarks made by Mr. Keyes, who heretofore has a more reasonable attitude. I never advised the men to strike at the fundamental principle of Unionism. All I have done is to tell the men that if they struck irrevocably lose their pen. By one stroke of my pen, in this strike notice, I would give the men of the right to a suspension of work advised by the Law Agent that case under the Limerick Government Act. I have warned the men of the consequences of their action that is contrary to Trades Unionism. I do not know what Unionism or democracy is.

PERFECTLY JUSTIFIED

Mr. Donnellan said that with what the Manager had said it would be a most serious thing if public services were to be discontinued, and the Manager was justified in warning the men of the consequences to themselves if
