

thplace. He ally equipped waiting him. sent his Ad- ued a state- ench demon- ire exercised ible.

w penetrated This morning d Innsbruck. lanes landed of a moto- town, an, ad- ce, and later ugh Brunner reading Hit- the German abinet met to to consider d follow last ing Street to nisters.

MEETS.

ARD
tion

airman) pre- County Board, n in St Ita's objection to Junior foot- at Galbally e grounds of d to the Ap-the Munster n of £5; the the Limerick minutes late eague played the penalty was only right ake the field happen again. inter-county

e upheld ob- against Rath- Hurling final of the Rath- e ed, and the ended a re- . St Finbarrs, nior Football horse and cart. Evidence was given to the effect that the defendant was driving a horse and cart up Bedford Row when the accident occurred. The defendant was fixing some bags at the rere of his car while the horse proceeded unattended. The wheel of the cart struck the mudguard of a motor car.

The Justice imposed a fine of 5s.

DEATH OF MRS. WILLIS

POPULAR LIMERICK MAN BEREAVED.

Widespread sorrow and sympathy were evoked in Limerick, her native city by the death of Mrs. John Willis, Mallow. Deceased, who passed away on the 1st inst. in the Bon Secour Home, Cork, was daughter of Mr. James McNamara, 31 Bowman Street, Limerick, a deservedly popular official of the City G.P.O. She was a lady of great personal charm of manner, and her many fine qualities of head and heart had won her the golden opinion of a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. She leaves a family of six children to mourn her loss, and to these and her husband, father and other bereaved relatives we extend our very sincere sympathy. The funeral, which was very large and representative, took place to Mallow on 3rd inst.

Many messages of sympathy were received on the death of Mrs. Willis, and the staff of Limerick G.P.O. have arranged for a Novena of Masses for the repose of her soul.

ANNUAL DANCE

St. Patrick's Night Function

St. Patrick's Night will be a gala occasion at the Stella Ballroom, Limerick, when the Annual Carnival Dance takes place. The music for the function will be supplied by Billy Armstrong's famous dance band, and a most enjoyable night is promised to patrons.

This dance is always one of the most successful of the year in Limerick. Already a large number of applications have been made for tickets, which can be secured at the Stella Restaurant. All arrangements have been made by the Management to cater for the comfort 1000 commits a breach of the law. If such is done a complaint should be made to the authorities. I mention this matter so that the position might be generally known..

The Justice then granted all the applications.

FEENAGH DISPENSARY

Doctor Appointed

At a meeting of the County Board of Health yesterday, by the casting vote of the Chairman, Dr. T. W. McNamara, Ballyvaughan, was appointed medical officer in the Feenagh Dispensary District, caused vacant by the death of Dr. Hannigan.

There were two candidates, the unsuccessful applicant being Dr McCabe, Mullinahone, Co. Tipperary.

Mr Canty proposed that Dr. McNamara be appointed, and said that the Board would be only bringing him back to his native county.

Mr. McCormack seconded. Mr. Quin proposed, and Mr. Hartney seconded, that no appointment be made.

The poll resulted as follows:—

For Dr. McNamara's appointment:— Messrs. Canty, Madden, McCormack, Mackey, and th Chairman—5.

For the amendment:—Messrs. Hartnett, Hartney, Quaid, Quin, and Hogan—5.

The Chairman then gave his casting vote for Dr. McNamara.

DIED IN U.S.A.

We regret to record the death, which occurred at Indianapolis, U.S.A., on February 16th last, of Mr. Adam G. Micks, younger son of th late Adam Micks, Wellmount, Askeaton.

The late Mr. Micks, who was 44 years of age, went to the United States in 1926, and for nine years held an important post in the Diamond Chain Com- (widow), . Winifred Margaret Micks pany. His survivors are Mrs. W. Micks (daughter), and Richard Adam Micks (son).

DANCE HOURS EXTENDED.

At the City-District Court yesterday, Mr. P. G. Collins, solicitor, made application on behalf of the Stella Restaurant for a ceillidhe dance licence for the 7th April, the occasion being the All-Ireland Congress of the Gaelic League. He asked that the hours be fixed from 10 p.m. to