

olver (produced) which king order. D.O. Walker suit case in the room

BY ACCUSED MEN.

The witness read state-the accused in which eaking into Messrs Can-g the goods. They slept for the night, having set to wake them at six re leaving in the morn-t and coat.
rs Walker and Gallivan re of finding the articles re previous witness.

BY ACCUSED.

Reply to the Justice said full detailed statement argues, and he objected the statement which ree in the pawn office. He set out in his statement, e him particulars of the the sketch submitted in rawn.

the evidence.
turned both accused for Circuit Court in custody. warm congratulations to t McNulty, and Detect-alker and Gallivan on work in the case. The mitted on Sunday, and ng day the men were id not think that effiexceeded anywhere, and he brilliant work of the ld be brought to the oper authorities.

ORDER CASES FOR FINAL COURT.

r charges—three from e from Cork—are listed the Central Criminal on Monday.
re cases of alleged inof alleged manslaughter, ged false pretences have d.

charges are:—
O'Donoghue, arraigned r of Annie Deane, at topher Duffy, for the rother, Leo, a civil series; and Thomas Whelan
, and Daniel Jordan, for William O'Brien, Kelly's s Street, Dublin.

competition. There is, however, it is stated, a provision whereby, in the event of injury to specified Eire products through this competition, the British Government would guarantee Irish investors against loss. In view of the complete secrecy surrounding the details, any unofficial views on the matter must be regarded as mere conjecture.

The talks between the two countries opened on January 17th of this year, and from the outset were believed to cover such matters as trade, finance, defence, and partition, to mention the main subjects. It is understood that the framework of a possible agreement had been drawn up between officials from both countries prior to the departure to London of the first official delegation.

When Mr. de Valera leaves Dublin for London this evening he will be accompanied, as on the three former occasions, by Mr. S. MacEntee (Minister for Finance), Mr. S. Lemass (Minister for Industry and Commerce), and Dr. J.
Ryan (Minister for Agriculture).

CLARE DOCTOR'S ESTATE.

Dr. Patrick John Holmes, M.D., of The Nok, Killaloe, Co. Clare, who died on August 14last, left estate in England and in Eire valued at £10,992. Probate of his will dated April 28th, 1937, has been granted to his brother, Robert Holmes, or Rose House, Athlunkard, Limerick, farmer. He left his property to his children in such proportions as his brother may decide.

The death occurred yesterday at Knock-nagurteeny, Murroe, Co. Limerick, of Mr Daniel Harty, brother of Most Rev. Dr.
Harty, Archbishop of Cashel.

DEATH.

BURROWES—April 22, 1938, at her residence, 5 Lower Mallow Street, Limerick, Margaret D. Burrowes. Funeral took place this (Saturday) afternoon from Trinity Church to St. Munchin's.
"Thy will be done."

IN MEMORIAM.

MCCARTHY—Fourth Anniversary — In ever loving memory of May McCarthy, 79 Clare Street, Limerick, who died on April 23, 1934.
Though gone from us, dear May,
Your memory still is dear,
And many a prayer is said to-day From the hearts that loved you dear.
Mother, Jack, Mick, Christy, and Maggie.

190 acres, statute measure of about, for the Repts. of the L.
O'Dell; revised annuity to 1 Land Commission, £21 14s. 10c Law Valuation, lands, £105 15s. ings, £10. Sold to Mr. Michael Tarbert, for the sum of £3,000 a mission. Messrs. P. T. Liston Solrs., Rathkeale, had carriage

The two-storey and semi-residence known as Richmond Ashbourne Avenue, Limerick, for fee simple; Poor Law Valuation purchased by Mr. Daniel O'Cor £350 and commission. Mr. A.
Smyth, Solr., 47, O'Connell Street rick, had carriage of sale.

A well secured Ground Rent of payable out of Residential Prop-the Ennis Road, Limerick. Sold years' purchase and commission.

The result of these sales was sidered quite satisfactory.

CAR IN CRASH.

LIMERICK SOLICITOR SUMM

District Justice Flood reservdecision in a case heard at Nen-which Desmond O'Malley, a Li-solicitor, was summoned for o-under the Road Traffic Regulation James Bourke, Line Alley, N alleged that Mr. O'Malley drove wrong side of the road and ran horse which he was leading, fro yard to a field.

Mr. O'Malley said he was on h to Dublin and had to go on the side to pass another car. Bourk his horse appeared as he was back to his own side. The horse g tive, twisted around and struck t If Bourke had walked between t cars the accident would not hav pened.

PRIESTS BEREAVED.

Death of Mrs. H. O'Donoghue, Waterford.

The death occurred recently c B. O'Donoghue, of Knockmaun, Waterford. The deceased, who member of a well-known Co. Wa family, was mother of Very Rev.
John O'Donoghue (Defnitor), Limerick, and Very Rev. Father O'Donoghue, O.S.A., Prior, Fetha Tipperary, to whom, with th members of her family, deepe pathy is extended in their berea