

onehall; the Rev. J. Deering, University Church, and the Rev. J. , Navan. The bride was given away by her Mr. F. W. Woodward. She wore a gown of white satin. A high of orange blossoms held her ed tulle veil, and she carried a gold-tipped Madonna lilies. The bridesmaids were the Misses Russell and Sheila Woodward. re frocks of silk organdie, with ; apple green boleros and head-dresses. Their bouquets of buds were tied with cream satin and the wore jade and gold , the bridegroom's gift. The child attendant, Miss Ann Hefferre a Kate Greenaway frock and bonnet of apple green organdie, ried a posy of pale pink roses. e, Master Niall Heffernan, wore a thorough suit of white satin. Mr. y acted as best man, and the an was Mr. J. Cussen. After the ceremony a reception was the Shelbourne Hotel, and in the n Mr. and Mrs. D. G. O'Donovan the South of France.

H. J. HORNECK AND MISS H. E. GAMBLE.

The marriage, with Nuptial Mass and blessing, was solemnised in the of the Precious Blood, Clogheen, Mr. Henry J. Horneck, National Limerick, second youngest son of A Horneck and the late Mr. A. eck, journalist, Navan, County and Miss Helen E. Gamble, daughter of Mrs. J. Gamble and Mr. P. Gamble, Janemount, ; Well, Cork. The officiating an was Rev. T. O'Keeffe, C.C., The bridesmaid was Miss Francis (sister of the bride), and the a was Mr. J. T. Horneck, Navan, of the groom).

COUNCIL OF AUCTIONEERS.

The first meeting of the Council of Auctioneers' and Estate Agents ion, Mr. J. P. Hartigan and Mr. F. McNeice, both of Limerick, -opted members. The latter was cted on an education committee, tes and lectures.

nation of meeting in Limerick to-day, tender heartiest congratulations on termination of negotiations, with earnest hope that the terms of agreement will give general satisfaction."

The Secretary reported that 4 regular traders, 4 coasters, and 1 overseas vessel entered the port in the last fortnight.

RECENT WILL.

Mrs. Caroline Elizabeth Delmege, of Castlepark, Limerick, who died on November 14th last, widow of James O'Grady Delmege, D.L., and daughter of the late Marmaduke Coghill Cromer, D.L., of Rathmore, Kinsale, left estate in England of the gross value of £11,200, with net personalty £9,160. Probate has been granted to her son, Capt. John Christopher Delmege, retired, and her daughter, Miss Caroline Marie Delmege, both of Castlepark aforesaid. She left her shares in Cork Distillers Co. and the Shell Transport and Trading Co., Ltd., to her daughter, Caroline Marie Delmege, her residence upon trust for her children, John Christopher, Hugh, and Caroline Marie Delmege, and she appointed her interest under her late father's will to her children other than her son Marmaduke Coghill Camer Delmege, who is otherwise provided for. The residue of the property she left upon trust to pay such a sum as will with the income from certain settled estate make up his income to £250 per annum to her son Marmaduke C. C. Delmege, and the remainder equally between her sons John Christopher and Hugh.

LIMERICK LADY'S DEATH.

Mrs. N. O'Sullivan, Killarney.

The death took place at the Bon Secour Home, Cork, yesterday, of Mrs. W. O'Sullivan, wife of Dr. Wm. O'Sullivan, Inch House, Killarney. The deceased lady was sister of Mr. Stephen O'Mara, and Mr. Joseph O'Mara, Limerick, and was well known and widely respected by a large circle of friends in the city.

Deep sympathy will be extended to the O'Mara family in their bereavement.

MORE OP

Limerick is also inde Rosa, Arthur Rousby, & Companies for their col pleasure, recreation, an ded by high Opera M Carl Rosa is a bit blurre only combination that I ever presented "The R and "Barber of Seville," exquisite artistes, E. Philip Brozel in the cas pany had a veritable which furnished fault coloured and enriched of forty. Wagnerian make a strong appeal person, but, strange to hauser," and "Lohengrin in this city. That esta have contended, namely, can claim to be a centre ture, or, at least, to hav for the art of Jubal. U which took place at se ward bound from South Rousby was a regular Shannon-side. Poor Rousb accomplished in his vocati steadfast in his friendsh wide and varied. Typica had a passionate love for in the course of a hurrie in answer to a question, of a predeliction for pl audiences. When asked Limerick, he replied wit yes, "because," he added, enthusiastic, and, above a which is a great trait, w is concerned." He inform no special or favourite re a great affection for "Ma his engagements here I assured of packed houses The Elster Grime Com first made its acquaintan ming in the Athenaeu subsequent visit had tra Royal. They had, so their feet, and were affe tors. Miss Elster was prima donna, and, natur reputation of the Compai prised Frank Land, Mich mention only two. Kind was a dear personality, ponent of his metier, and ite. Kemble was equally not as versatile. Frank in Clonmel, where his fa