

nity as a whole. ports, he added, that d pointed out in the Cumann na nGaedheal taken them over many British Government had give them to Mr. de Valera had agreed to se they saved his face we had made a Nat- ler the Agreement. As the ports were now ob- money was spent in onesided. Fine Gael had made it possible, and if Fianna Fail had taken the advice of the Fine Gael leaders during the economic war, the settlement would probably have been brought about at a much earlier stage.

The elections resulted as follows: Chairman, Mr. M. C. Burke, Solr.; Vice-Chairman, Mr. P. Bourke, B.C.; Joint Treasurers, Messrs. Morgan Mc-Mahon and D. Power; Secretary, Mr. D. Bagott; Representative on National Ex-ecutive, Col. Liam Fraher.

dispute brought to an end. The Mayor said he had already ested himself in the strike. He proached the Department of and Commerce, but the Railwa pany had refused to negotiate. H be only too happy to be of any ance.

On the proposition of Mr. seconded by Mr. Casey, a resolut passed, requesting the Great Railways to meet the representa the men affected by the dispute a rick.

THE ANGLO-IRISH AGREEMENT

Mr. Hartney proposed a re congratulating Mr. de Valera Ministerial colleagues on the be settlement that had been arrived result of the London negotiations.

Mr. Donnellan—I have very pleasure in seconding the resolu Ald Reidy considered that con- tions should be extended to all who by their work during the years, had made such a settle- sible. He proposed an amendm that effect.

Mayor—Any seconder for the ment?

There being no seconder, the resolution was declared passed. Reidy dissenting.

THE PRESIDENCY.

On the proposition of Mr. Don seconded by Ald. Reidy, a resolut congratulation to Dr. Douglas H. Freeman of Limerick, was passed mously on his selection for the office of President.

VOTE OF SYMPATHY.

Mr. Dalton proposed that the sy of the Council be tendered to Mr. O'Sullivan, a Director of Messrs. C Ltd., on the death of his mother, of Mr. S. M. O'Mara, to whom Council also voted sympathy.

HAVERGAL AND ROXBOROUGH SCHOOLS.

The Annual Bazaar

Madam FitzGerald opened the Bazaar in aid of the Havergal and Roxborough Schools, held in the Diocesan Pery Square, this afternoon, and will be continued on Monday from 2 p.m.

The Bishop, Rt. Rev. Dr. Irwin sided, and there was a large attendance. Madam FitzGerald was welcomed.

TO RESCIND LIMERICK GAEL'S DEATH

Board Decision

County Board Adjourns.

'Sphere' Required

of the Limerick County

rke, Knockaderry, asked he would be in order in notice of motion rescind- n passed at the last wing the Limerick team and Feis, and breaking Gaelic League.

have adjourned the o the death of Mr. T. of the South Limerick you should hold the l next Saturday, and it the following Saturday. would like to have it alm atmosphere.

l, I think that the best issing the matter in a is to let it run as far ie further we get away meeting the calmer any e.

DEN FETE

Castle Magnet.

of Glin Castle, the beau- he Knight of Glin, and ld, will be thrown open Thursday next, May 5th, l be held there in aid of of Glin church. The famous Co. Limerick emselves a magnet, and other attractions, will visit. Numerous bright

The death took place yesterday at his residence, Main Street, Hospital, Co. Limerick, of Mr. Thomas F. Woods, P.C. The deceased who was in the prime of life, had been exceptionally prominent in the national, Gaelic and social life of East Limerick, being from his earliest youth actively associated with all.

As Secretary of the South Limerick G.A.A. Board, he won universal praise and admiration. Gaels throughout the country will, in particular, learn the sad news with sincere regret. The late Mr. Woods was actively engaged in the Anglo-Irish war, in which he took a prominent part as an officer, so his colleagues in the old I.R.A. will also very deeply regret his early demise.

Limerick County Board meeting was adjourned to-day as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Mr. T. Woods, Secretary, South Limerick Board, whose death occurred yesterday.

Proposing the motion for adjournment, Mr. T. Humphreys, Vice-Chairman, said that the late Mr. Woods had passed away at a comparatively early age. He was one of the greatest Gaels in the county, and it was due to his competency and efficiency that the work of the Association in the South Limerick Board was such a great success. Mr. Woods was one of the greatest officials in the Association, and his loss to the South Board was irreparable. He tendered deep sympathy to the family of the deceased.

WEDDING.

MR. G. A. SHEEDY AND MISS C. A. BARRETT.