

DRAMA LEAGUE

Season Ends

Drammochta, Luimnighe, season to a successful con-
-ght at the Catholic Insti-
-the members presented
-a," by W. W. Jacobs, and
-ic Lover," by J. B. Mc-
-representative and enthu-
-e.

ay was something in the -fantasy, while the second,
-t comedy, provided a de-
-st.

Apa" depicted the sorrow
-brought to an English
-ause of the evil influence
-y's paw endowed with the
-anting three wishes to its
-was splendidly produced.

Kelly as Sean O Faoitig
-essive interpretation of the
-who invoked the talisman
-vish granted, and who bit-
-l his decision. As his wife,
-O'Suilleabhain gave strong
-hile Sean O Laotda, as
-on, was well in character.
-is Beaumont successfully
-heavy role, and Mr. Robt.
-ry good in a minor role.

TABLE PRODUCTION.

e Ni Niallain as Molly
-ieved much distinction in
-ng role as sister of the -over (Daly Casey). This
-ly laughable production, in
-balanced caste gave an in-
-hich evoked loud applause.
-lost nothing in its transla-
-the English by Miss E.
-aly Casey was remarkably
-s scenes with Miss Margaret
-Cait Ni Bradaig) were out-
-adhg O'Ceallaig as Liam
-ed himself equally at home
-id comedy, while as Lizzie,
-iss Nora O'Sullivan played
-al grace an conviction.

TABLE PRODUCTION.

g, production, and present-
-ted great credit on Mr.
-vitt, the producer, and in -e lighting effects were most nical Institute Band, under

-Brien, rendered enjoyable

Woodsdown, Lisnagry"; "With deep re-
-gret, from Derry and Arthur"; "In -remembrance, from Maurice and May";
-"With deep sympathy, from Mr. and -Mrs. Dodds"; "From all at Woodlands";
-"Very deepest sympathy, from the -Members of Adare Manor Golf Club";
-"With deepest sympathy, from all at -Carass, Croom"; "In sincere sympathy,
-from Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Goodbody";
-"Deepest sympathy, from the 'Limerick
-Chronicle'"; "Deepest sympathy, from
-the Misses Dooley"; "With deepest
-sympathy, from the Staff of Lans-
-downe"; "With deepest sympathy, from
-the Staff at Shelbourne"; "In remem-
-brance from Mrs. Alton"; "Deepest sym-pathy, from 'Nantenan'"; "Deepest
-sympathy, from Col. and Mrs. Furnell."

DEATH OF MRS. E. O'CONNOR.

Very sincere sorrow is felt in Limerick
-at the death of Mrs. Ellen O'Connor,
-late of Upper Mallow Street, which oc-curred on Sunday last. Deceased, who -was a lady of a most lovable disposition,
-had endeared herself to all who had
-the pleasure of her acquaintance, and
-her passing is very sincerely regretted.
-To her husband, Mr. R. P. O'Connor,
-sincerest sympathy is extended by a
-wide circle of friends, but especially by
-the members of the Typographical Asso-ciation in the city, of which Mr. O'Con-
-nor is one of the oldest members.

The funeral, which took place on -Monday from St. Munchin's Church to
-Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, bore tes-timony to the very high esteem in which
-the deceased lady was held in the city.

MR. DE VALERA VISITS LIMERICK.

An Taoiseacht, Mr. de Valera, visited
-Limerick to-day for a short time, on -his way to Kilrush, where, on to-morrow he will attend a conference of -the Fianna Fail Cummar of West Clare.

Mr. de Valera, when in Limerick,
-paid a brief call to Hanratty's Hotel,
-where he was received by the Mayor.

RECENT COURT CASE.

We are asked to state that Mr.
-Alphonsus O'Halloran, of Wolfe Tone
-Street, Limerick, has no connection
-whatever with a youth bearing the
-same name who received a suspensory
-sentence at the recent Circuit Court.

Chairman—When Mrs Horn
-here she gave every satisfaction
-On the proposition of Mr.
-seconded by Canon Abbott, it wa
-mously decided to grant Mrs
-£240.

THE OLD CITY

Interesting Tour

That the North Thomond Ar
-cal Society has undertaken a tu
-popular work in organising
-conducted tours of investigatio
-Limerick is shown by the i
-number of members and visito
-part in these tours.

On Thursday afternoon a ve
-number started from Matthew
-with an increasing number
-followers as the tour proceeded
-Rev. M. Moloney, the conduc
-severely taxed to make himse
-by everyone.

Not only was interest shown
-taking part, but the windows o
-houses en route were throug
-curiously interested spectato
-ing out of Broad Street, Fath
-pointed out where the old city
-stood, and explained the
-known as East and West W
-Coming further on to Michael
-explained how in the olden da
-the main thoroughfares ran fr
-right through the old town aw
-Mungret Road, and was known
-gloss, the only part now in ex
-that known as Augustinian La
-ering on through Mungret St
-some of the surrounding lar
-bits of the old walls were see
-places the party arrived at
-Presbytery. Here by the kin
-sion of Most Rev. Dr. Keane, t
-ful Mitre and Crozier of Bisl
-were on view. Their history a
-ate workmanship were fully
-by Father Moloney to a keenl
-ed audience.

Moving on to St. John's H
-Citadel Gateway, old walls,
-Battery all afforded consider
-est. As this was the final
-season, at its conclusion a v
-vote of thanks was accorded
-Moloney for all that he ha
-make the tours so intere
-successful.