The Mayor then declared Mr. Donnellan elected as Acting City Manager, subject to the sanction of the Department.

don, Law Agent, who referred to Mr. O'Mahony's many sterling qualities.

The chiefs of all civic departments joined in the tribute to Mr. O'Mahony, who, in reply, said he would always recall with pride and pleasure the cordial relations that existed between the Municipal Staffs and himself. The Staffs had given him loyal, faithful, and devoted service, and he hoped the same spirit of comradeship and good-fellowship would characterise the relations between them and his successor. The Limerick Corporation Staffs were as competent as any that could be found in the country.

Ex-T.D. in Belfast Court

In the Belfast Police Court to-day, Mr. Eamonn Donnelly, ex-T.D., was charged with disobeying an Exclusion Order made against him by the Northern Ireland Minister for Justice.

Evidence of the serving of the Order on the accused at Gorahwood Railway Station was given, and other evidence was given to prove that Mr. Donnelly was arrested in Newry during the week.

He was fined £25., failing to pay which he would spend one month in prison.

ILLEGAL PICKET.

MR. J. LARKIN DEFENDANT.

Mr. James Larkin, ex-T.D., was one of four defendants charged at Dublin District Court to-day, with watching and besetting the premises of James O'Phelan, butcher, Dublin.

Mr. Larkin was accused of picketing with four other men belonging to his Trade Union, and the case was not concluded at the time of going to press.

STRIKE SPREADS.

ONE HUNDRED MEN OUT.

A further extension of the G.N.R. lorry drivers' strike took place to-day when helpers and drivers in Navan and Balbriggan and other Northern depots, struck work in sympathy with their colleagues.

There are now close on 100 men on strike, and 50 lorries are held up.
