half time.
 Cork reopened strongly, and O'Callaghan raised the white flag with a grand shot.
 Clare again rallied, and excitement ran high as they drew level with points from Costello and White.
 Cork seemed to have the game won when Dineen raced through to send over a point, but again Clare rallied, and with almost the last puck of the game, Costelloe had the all-important point.

BIG ENTRIES FOR HORSE SHOW.
