

the cars was approaching the city from Ennis, and the impact occurred at a point on the bridge which is undergoing repairs. Nobody was injured, but the cars were put out of action as a result of the crash.

CORK MYSTERY.

For the past week a Civic Guard has been on continuous watch at the Cork County Home at the bedside of John Paul Gleeson, a 22-year-old farm labourer, from Glounaglough, Rylane, Co. Cork. Gleeson has been unconscious, in a serious condition with various injuries, having been found on the roadside between Rylane and Donoughmore with blood-stains on the road and his bicycle placed against the hedge nearby.

OBITUARY.

Death of Mrs. A. Graham.

With very deep regret we announce the death of Mrs. Ann Graham at her residence, Upper Mallow Street, during the early hours of this morning. The deceased lady was wife of Dr. Matthew Graham, and daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Maher, building contractor, Roscrea. Her illness, borne with fortitude and resignation, was of considerable duration, and the end came peacefully and happily. Mrs. Graham was a lady of very engaging and affable manner, which made her numerous friends, not only in Limerick, but in her native town and in Shinrone, where she spent the early years of her married life. She combined a cultured mind with a sympathetic disposition, and was intensely kind and charitable. A devoted wife and mother, her death brings into the home a severe bereavement, in which her husband and children will have the sincere sympathy of the citizens, and with which we wish to be associated.

The remains will be removed to St. Michael's Church at 8 o'clock this (Thursday) evening, and the funeral will take place after Requiem Mass at 10.30 o'clock to-morrow morning for Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

Kathleen O'Connor, aged 23, of 13 Ballymore road, Cork, who was badly tember 6th.

Candidates, the advertisement states, must be at least 30 years of age, must be well educated, and of high administrative capacity; must have experience in the organisation and control of staff and in the conduct of negotiations, and possess a general knowledge of local administration and finance, and social legislation.

DAY-TO-DAY RAILWAY EMPLOYMENT.

The announcement recently made by the Great Southern Railways Company that it might be necessary to dismiss their workers and re-employ them on a day-to-day basis was discussed at a conference between officials of the Department of Industry and Commerce and representative of the group unions which are affiliated to the Dublin Trades Union Council, and to which the rail workers' belong. The necessity of permanent employment, and the disadvantage of reductions in workers' status were among the matters discussed before the conference adjourned.

SUDDEN SEIZURE.

ELDERLY WOMAN'S DEATH.

A woman named Ann Danagher (46), living at Park, died suddenly in the early hour of this morning. She became ill last night, but recovered after a short time and retired to bed. This morning she had a seizure and died in a short time.

A doctor's certificate was forthcoming and the Coroner did not consider an inquest necessary.

MOTOR COLLISION.

ACCIDENT AT SHELBOURNE CROSS.

Two motor cars came into collision at Shelbourne Cross, Limerick, this afternoon, but without causing any damage. One of the cars, a Baby Ford, containing a party of visitors, was struck in front and the guard was torn away. The back mudguard of the other vehicle was also smashed.

W. H. J. Oxenham, of Hove, Sussex, was beaten, 6 and 5, by Clinton Russell, of Duluth, in an 18-holes match for the blind golfers' world championship. Oxenham, who lost his sight when he was struck with a shell on the Somme during iron railing the intentic portion of

The estim

The Secr the past fo coasters, ar tered the po

CIVIL SI

Publicat

The Iris will soon is Civil Surve Comprising the city and including Kilmallock. xlvii + 53 and will be guinea. W year 1665 of juries re men and th Civil Surve place-name Irish famil given for a proprietor i names of p of use, or turned in t to the urb addition to occupiers d length and Limerick C in each Ki

An cutl boundaries with some fixed to th include a requisite i With th its history press by D Quit Rent

CO

Sister F the Lake, at presen place. St P. J. Hy.