LIMERICK TRAGEDY

Aged Man Killed

Struck by Car Near Raheen

After coming out of a small by-way from his residence at Clonkeela, near Raheen, this afternoon, an aged man named John Darcy was struck by a car and killed instantly.

, The car was proceeding out from Limerick, and the accident occurred about four miles from the city.

The unfortunate victim was aged about 70 years, and was residing near the spot, in the house of a Mr.McNamara. deceased was an unemployed labourer.

There wee no wiatnesses to the occurrence excepting the three occupants of the car.

It appers, however, that the vehicle, which bore a Co. Kerry number plate, was travelling o nits correct side. The deceased came out from an obscure byway on the left-hand side of the road, and was struck. He received terrible injuries. Rev. Father Punch, P.P., Mungret, was early on the scene and rendered all possible aid.

The deceased was then removed to McNamara's house, and was later reambulance to Croom, in the moved pending an inquest,
