

suit, the farmers could -I am sorry to say you as you always were.
the meeting.

T.D., Carlow, said that essential if the farmers ed. At the present time on of the people enjoy-d had no rateable pros, almost the entire burng local services fell on owners. The burden of ervices should be equite of the decline of agri-nce 1929 was £20,000,000 was a tremendous loss y.

r. Cogan said that the had declined to such an as essential the farmers facilities to re-stock criticised the action of in giving pensions and ies' salaries, and in con-earnest appeal to the country to combine in sts.

asked if the farmers were force their demands by me for a month and reproduce.

ies of "Certainly," "We s followed, and on the fr. J. Browne, seconded the resolutions read at the meeting were passed

RD WORKSHOPS ACT.

Nolan, Elm Ville, Shanaerick, has been appointed geon under the Factory
Acts and the Workmen's ct, 1934, for the Shananich comprises the elec-f Dunmoylan East, Dunoghill, Mohernagh, Shananid.

Woulfe, Grove House, rick, has been appointed geon under the Factory
Acts and the Workmen's
ct, 1934, for the Bruff prises the electoral divia, Bruff, Knockainy and AGE PER MONTH IN BELFAST.

months there has been for sale food not fit for human consumption.

George Bowles, Inspector, said he seized a small quantity of offal exposed for sale on the defendant's premises which was unfit for human consumption.

The defendant said he was 36 years in business and had never been prosecuted.
The meat was not worth three halfpence, and the bones were not for sale. They were left in the window accidentally

The Justice said he believed the defendant had told the truth, and on condition that the cost of the summons was paid he would impose no penalty.

DEATH OF MRS H. A. WHITE

The death occurred rather unexpectedly on Sunday morning of Mrs Harriet Anne White, 3 Lifford Avenue, Ballinacurra, Limerick, wife of Mr Thomas White, Engineering Dept., Limerick
G.P.O.

The interment took place on Tuesday afternoon in St. Mary's Cathedral Cemetery, following a largely attended Service in St. Michael's Church, at which the Dean of Limerick (Very Rev. G. L.
Swain) and the Rector (Rev. Treasurer Abbott) officiated. Rev. Treasurer Abbott read the committal sentences at the graveside.

The chief mourners were:—

Mr T. White (husband), Mr. J. White (son), Miss E. White (daughter), Mr. R.
Drew (brother), Mrs. R. Drew, Miss C. White, Mrs. T. W. Marsden, Mrs.
J. H. Slater (sisters-in-law), Master Tom Marsden (nephew), T. W. Marsden, J. H.
Slater, W. Ruttle, J. Ruttle, Mrs. J.
Smyth, Miss S. Long (relatives).

Wreaths and floral tributes included the following:—"In loving remembrance, from her heart-broken Husband and Family"; "A token of love, from Lizzie Wilson and family"; "In affectionate remembrance, HESSIE and JACK"; "Kind remembrance, Tom and G. Campion"; "Deepest sympathy, Mr and Mrs. Foley."
"In loving remembrance," All at 54 William Street"; "With heartfelt sympathy, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Quin"; "With fond remembrance, from Bernard and Betty McBride"; "Kind remembrance, Mrs. Abbott"; "With loving sympathy, Pat (Miss Ralph)"; "With deepest sympathy, St. Michael's Tennis Club and Choir"; "With deepest sympathy, G.P.O.
Engineering Branch"; "With deep sympaty, Church Lads' Brigade, Limerick Company."

FOURTEEN IN HO PITAL

tive—to quote the language of on that the Committee is a closed b

DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES.

I am not in a position to either firm or repudiate this assertion, I are all agreed on one thing, and that an institution which is in recan annual grant from the city should be controlled and managed wide a basis as possible. A Cabia few is not commendable in the c-sation of an Art Gallery, no more in the creation of a public library may say what qualification has the nary individual to adjudicate merits of an oil painting or colour? Granted it is limited or nit does not get away from the principle of democracy in art as in other sphere. If the Committee more subscribers, representation m-increased.

A WASHOUT.

Thursday will in this area go do meteorological annals as the vilest most inclement day of the year. heralded by blue flame lightning, der and sleet showers of intense ness. All through the morning th-beat with furious rhythm on the w-pane, and at 11 o'clock a pall of daenshrouded the city. The streets covered with rivulets—good fro hygienic standpoint, as there will need to hose sewer-traps for som-to come. Out the country con-were even worse, if that were po-Adare Coursing Meeting suffered th-of a washout, and the concrete r-Ballyneety was submerged in part

QUESTION TEST.

Question Time, otherwise test of ledge, or, to be more accurate, wh-don't know, has taken on immens-the city. It has spread from the val in Bedford Row to the L-Society at the Technical Institutrumour has it that it is to form th-attractive feature of clubland Christmas. Of course, it all bega-our school days, but Radio E-claims the honour. Plagiarism pu-simple. What about this one? pupil in good job revisits Alma Addressing boys, said: "I once these benches like you, and I could have a return of school day any boy tell me why?" Hands u-all wrong except one shy mite, wplied: "Because, please sir, you all you knowed." Can you beat th-