

on Monday morning, and the funeral took place in the afternoon to Mt. St Lawrence Cemetery. It was of large and representative dimensions.

Late Mrs N. P. Hayes

The recent death of Mrs Nora P Hayes, widow of the late Mr Patrick Hayes, principal teacher, Bradford, county Limerick, was learned of with deepest regret in West Limerick and North Cork, where she was well known and highly respected. The deceased was third daughter of the late Michael and Julia O'Brien-McAuliffe. She is survived by her two brothers, Cornelius and Michael McAuliffe, and one sister, the Rev Mother Lorotto, St Mary's Convent, Denver. She lived to the ripe old age of 88, and up to the time of her death enjoyed perfect health. The funeral was of large dimensions and served at a fitting tribute to the deceased.

Clare Appointment

The Minister for Agriculture has sancsecond half, but to their slender best served by O gave a faultless d O'Farrell and O. in the forward served by Shid Delahunty.

In the second initiative and w attack. The Rich and O'Dwyer was good runs. On Shannon was ov was knocked out

Mr Sean

Visit

Mr Sean Mo Secretary to the and Commerce, day and was recei Bourke, C D). M visit to make a c new commodious offices in Cecil