Justice—I thought that this business was not going on here, but it has come to my knowledge that bad whisky is still to be had in Limerick. The fines under the act were recently doubled, and he would look up the matter and inform defendant's solicitor of the fines to be imposed on each count.

Vice-Chairman Bereaved

Death of Mrs. M. O'Donnell

Unfeigned sympathy is on all sides extended to Mr M O'Donnell, Loughill, Newcastle West, the popular Vice-Chairman of Limerick County Council, on the death of his wife. Deceased lady was mother of a family of eleven, including Mr Maurice F O'Donnell, B.L, Dublin; Mr John O'Donnell, soir, Tralee, and Mr James O'Donnell, Master and Leinster Bank, Cork.

Limerick Vessel Torpedoed

Enquiries in Limerick failed to elicit whether any members of the crew of the "Clonlara," which was subjected to a torpedo attack by an unknown submarine on Wednesday, whilst in Spanish waters, were Limerick men. The Master, Captain Ray-nolds, comes from Drogheda, but the manager of the Limerick Steamship Company stated that the personnel of the crew changes between ports and he was unable to state if the crew included Limerickmen.
No official news had been received by the company who knew nothing of the incident "beyond what appeared in the Press."
