The Justice said he would accept Mr O'Malley's statement, and as accused did not benefit in any way by the pawning of the articles, he would discharge her under the Probation of Offenders Act.

The Late Mr. J Cross.

It is with very sincere regret that we record the death of Mr John Cross, William street, which sad event took place on Wednesday after a brief illness. Deceased was son of the late Mr Patrick Cross and Mrs Cross, bookseller, and nephew of the late Mr James Ledden, T.D. A young citizen of quiet and unassuming disposition, the late Mr Cross was one of the band of young Limerickmen who fought with General O'Duffy's Irish Brigade on the Patriot side in the Spanish war. Exceedingly popular the news of his early demise came as a great shock to his wide circle of friends. The funeral this afternoon to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery was representative of all classes of the citizens, and included a number of deceased's comrades of the Irish Brigade.

* Plea of Guilty

Medical Evidence in Limerick Case

Before District Justice Flood, at the City District Court to-day.

Brian McKay, a native of Athlone, was charged with obtaining £5 5s by false pretences. Supt. Meehan prosecuted.

Mr Niall Gaffney, who appeared for defendant, said he was pleading guilty. He had evidence to show that defendant was not responsible for his action. It was the first time that he had ever appeared in Court. The accused was sent to prison for
