
Death of Mr. J. McMahon

It is with feelings of the most sincere regret that we record the death of Mr Jas. McMahon, newsagent, Ellen street, which occurred at his residence on Saturday morning. Deceased, who was son of the late Mr Thomas McMahon, of Redgate, farmer, was a very popular and gentle personality, beloved by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. He had not been in very robust health for some time, but was about his business up to a few days before his death, which came as a shock to his numerous relatives and friends. The remains were removed to St. Michael's Church on Saturday evening, and the funeral took place to Mt. St. Lawrence Cemetery on Sunday. It was truly a wonderful cortege of friends and sympathisers from far and near, and took a considerable time to pass a given point.

The clergy present were—Rev Dr. Cowper, O O, St Michael's; Rev Fr. Fitzpatrick, O O, do, and Rev Fr. O'Sullivan, C.C, do.
