

Sad Clare Fatality

Youth Drowned

A youth named J Kilderry (17) was drowned in a river at Lisdoonvarna on Saturday. The boy, after delivering letters for his father, took his fishing rod and went fishing. He went to a deep hole in the river and it appears the bank collapsed.

When found the boy's head was buried in the mud, and only his legs were visible above the surface of the water.

The entire sympathy of the district is extended to the parents in their very sad bereavement.
