
Ennis Compositor's Death

After attending Mass at Ennis on Sunday Mr Patrick Moloney, of Cloughleigh, a linotype operator employed at the "Clare Champion" offices, complained of feeling unwell. He proceeded home and shortly afterwards died.

Dr J H Counihan, coroner, was communicated with, and he instructed Dr P Moylan to perform a postmortem examination. This revealed that death was due to natural causes. His untimely death has excited much sympathy in the district where he was very popular. He was brother of Mr J Moloney, foreman printer, "Clare Champion," and brother-in-law of Mr P J MacNamara, U.C., Ennis.
