Passing Of Distinguished Jesuit

The death in Sydney of Very Rev P McCurtain, S J, will be learned of with very deep regret in Limerick, where he laboured for a long number of years. Fr McCurtain, who was a native of Nenagh, was Rector in Limerick for a prolonged period and was beloved by the people. He was a great favourite, and on the occasion of his departure for the land of the Southern Cross he was accorded a wonderful send-off. He was a distinguished educationist, and for some years he was Rector at Mungret College. At the time of his death he was Rector at St Aloysius church, Sydney.
