

Passing of Popular Figure

Death of Mr Phillip Hayes

With the deepest regret we announce the death of Mr Phillip Hayes, who passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday at his residence, Melrose, Ballinasarra, Limerick. "Phil" Hayes, as he was popularly known, carried on a successful wine and spirit business in Lower Glentworth street, and was held in the highest regard by all classes. Of a kindly, genial disposition, he was a thoroughly upright and honourable citizen and enjoyed, as he deserved, the confidence and respect of a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances. He was in every respect a very fine character, and no one could know him intimately without being favourably impressed and attracted by his many admirable qualities of head and heart. To his bereaved relatives we extend our very sincere sympathy.

The remains were removed on Tuesday evening to St Michael's Church, where Requiem Office and High Mass was offered up at 10.30 on Wednesday.

Rev Dr Cowper, O.O., was celebrant; Rev D O'Brien, St Munchin's College, deacon; Rev Fr Punch, P.P., sub-deacon; Rev Fr O'Sullivan, O.O., master of ceremonies.

In the choir were:—Rev J Gubbins, S.J.; Rev B Dillon-Kelly, S.J.; Rev Fr Corbett, S.J.; Rev Fr White, O.O.; Rev Fr Casey, O.O.; Rev Fr Moran, O.O.; Rev Fr Connolly, O.O., Mungret.

The funeral took place at 3 p.m. to Mungret on Wednesday, the cortege being of huge dimensions and of a most representative character.