

---

Clare Guard's Sad Death

---

Drowned While Bathing

Garda Nash, a native of Bodyke, County Clare, was drowned while bathing in the Glashaboy River at Glanmire, Co. Cork on Wednesday afternoon. Deceased went for a bath, leaving his home about 3 p.m. Not returning within an hour his wife became anxious, and going to the spot she discovered her husband's clothes on the bank. She gave the alarm, and the river was dragged by his colleagues for over four hours before the body, dressed in bathing costume, was recovered from some nine feet of water.

Garda Nash was 34 years of age, was 17 years in the force and was extremely popular. To add poignancy to the tragedy the deceased was the father of nine children, the eldest of whom is 13 years, and the youngest three months old.

---