

---

---

Late Mr J Ryan, Croom

---

The death of Mr J Ryan, Bridewell Lane, Croom, which occurred at his residence at the fine old age of 84 years, has marked the passing of one of the oldest residents in the district. Deceased was a member of a popular family, and his demise has caused general regret in the locality. He had the consolation before passing away of having in attendance some members of his family who had emigrated and who recently returned on a visit to the homeland.