

Death of Mrs. A. Graham

The sympathy of the citizens of all classes goes out to Dr Matthew Graham, Upper Mallow street, in his sad bereavement occasioned by the death of his wife, Mrs Ann Graham, a very kindly and charming lady. She had been seriously indisposed for a considerable period, and her demise at a comparatively early age was not unexpected. Her husband is one of our most popular fellow-citizens, and is highly esteemed in sporting circles as President of Bohemian R.F.C. and President of the North Munster Branch of the Irish Rugby Football Union. His sons, Messrs Jim, Mick, Matt and Frank were very noted players to bring honours to the Bohemian Club in recent years.

The funeral, after Requiem High Mass at St. Michael's Church on Wednesday morning, was a huge concourse, representative of numerous friends from the counties of Clare Tipperary and Limerick and of the professional, public and commercial life of the city.

The celebrant of the Mass was Rev J Enright, O.C., Banogue; deacon, Rev M Fitzpatrick, P.P., Bulgaden; sub-deacon, Rev R O'Sullivan, O.C., St Michael's.

The chief mourners were—Dr M Graham (husband), James, Michael, Matthew and Michael Graham (sons), Misses Elizabeth, Vera, Ethna and Patricia Graham (daughters), J Maher (brother), Mrs Fitzsimons (sister), Dr T Boucher Hayes (son-in law), Messrs R Fitzsimons, R Holmes M and P Graham (brothers in law), Mrs McNamara, Mrs Holmes, Mrs Mitchell (sisters-in-law), L Maher, M McNamara, J and M Graham, K Keane, Miss O'Brien, J Boucher Hayes, v u; A Hayes, Mr and Mrs O'Connell, Cahirciveen (relatives).
