Sad County Fatality

Old Man Killed

John Darcy (69), single, Raheen, Limerick, died almost instantly after being in collision with a motor car when walking on the main road near Patrickswell on Thursday. Deceased, an army pensioner, and a native of Tipperary, was with friends near Patrickswell.

The body was removed to a neighbouring house.