

O'Brien's Bridge Resident's Death

Profound feelings of sympathy and regret were evidenced when news of the death of Mr Michael Spillane, O'Brien's Bridge, was made known to the people in the district. The late Mr Spillane was a native of Carrigba, Tralee, and was a member of the R.I.C. for close on thirty-eight years. By his gentle manner he won the esteem and admiration of the general public, and proof of this was confirmed by the huge cortege which accompanied the remains from his home to Bridgetown church.

The interment took place in Bridgetown cemetery after Requiem Mass, celebrated by Rev D Crowe, C.C. Killaloe.
