Clare Tragedy

Martin McInerney, a 60 year old farmer residing at Tullyglass, East Clare, met with a tragic death on Sunday night on the new concrete road leading to Rbinanna Air Port.

When walking with a companion he was struck by a car. His injuries included two broken legs and head injuries as a result of which he died almost instantaneously. An inquest was opened by Dr S Scanlan, and on the application of Inspector O'Halloran adjourned.
