

to realise than an ac- and the accused was discharged.

WORKERS' HOLIDAYS

Yesterday, Mr. M. J. Keyes (Minister for Industry (Mr. S. Lemass) if he was) if he was... railway companies had... did not intend to per-... es a whole holiday on... to allow a whole holi-... f; whether he is aware... es concerned had in-... mination to stop work... on the ground that the... attempting to use the... yeas) Act, 1939, to... ustrial conditions, and... e what steps he was... that the enforcement... not be utilised to pre-... n of railway workers... oymment on public holi-... olid—Certain railway... represented to me that... nies do not propose to... liday on Whit-Monday... s, or to allow a whole... ereof. I have, however... nation on the subject... n the statutory rights... days with pay. So far... rs are concerned, any... er holiday facilities is... otiation between them... ompanies, and there is... t which would prevent... if agreed, from being... on. I am not aware... if so what, proposals... a made to the railway et Russia is denounced... letter he has written... rant, Secretary of the... he Eastern Church, in... Vladimir's baptism... r regrets that "to-day

ON ATHEISM.

FUNERAL OF MR. W. M. GOUGH

The remains of the late Mr. William M. Gough, Assistant City Treasurer, were interred in Mount St. Laurence Cemetery yesterday, amid expressions of deep regret. The funeral took place in the afternoon from St. John's Cathedral, and was representative and large. It was an eloquent testimony to the memory of a very popular citizen and a faithful official of the municipal service. The Mayor and members of the Corporation walked in the cortege, and every department of civic activity was represented, as well as the industrial and mercantile community.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. L. Gough (widow), Thomas and James Gough (brothers), Miss B. Gough and Mrs. Drummond (sisters), Mrs. P. Humphries, G. Spillane, Misses M and A. Spillane, G. Spillane (junr.), W. Lawlor, Mr. and Mrs. Hannan, Miss M. Gough, T. Gough (junr.), J Gough (junr.), P. Huhphries (Newport), J Ryan (Shower), G. Ryan (Killoscully), T. Brennan (Ardvarra), J. Doheny, (Cragg), P. Ryan (Drominboy), John, Tom, and Denis Fogerty, M Ryan, T.D.; Mr. and Mrs. Cantrell, Mr. and Mrs. Treacy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cronin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jones, Mrs. J. Humphries, Mrs. Jas. Humphries (Newport), Mrs. Ryan (Shower) (relatives).

The clergy present were:—Rev. Fr. J. Kelly, Adm., St. John's; Rev. Fr. J. Brazzil, C.C., do.; Rev. Fr. Creed, C.C., do.; Rev Fr B Gill, C.C., do.; Rev. Fr. W. J. O'Grady, C.C., do.

IRISH DEATH-RATE.

The deaths from all causes appertaining to the undermentioned areas for last week and for the past four weeks respectively were represented by the following annual rates per 1,000 of the population: Principal towns, 10.8 and 12.9; City of Dublin, 9.8 and 12.6; Borough of Dun in the Presbyterian members of the Mur the Rev. R. H. Semp of the Church.

Those commemorated windows are Mr. (father of Mr. Bruce Murray family as Lin his wife, Mrs. Eliza son Mr. Archibald M daughter, Miss Mar Both mother and d themselves in the v gregation in oustan father and son were Church Session, for n rick Presbyterian C much indeed to the generosity of the Mur

The Rev. R. H. Serr city in 1895 as Ministe tion, and at lengt years' service, resigned to ill-health. His mi terized by ability, ferv and faithful kindness. people did, indeed, l His influence, and th daughter of the late I was of the finest.

It is fitting that me voted members of should be dedicated.

The Rev. Dr. A. W. coming to Limerick to windows, is a man' o sonality—widely know lecturer in the Un Australia. He is M Street Church, Belfa

AGRICULTUR

At a meeting of Lin mittee of Agricultur Hartney (Chairman)

The Secretary, Mr. he had forwarded to constituency the resol last meeting requestin influence to have sitti tural Commission held In reply the Deputies ceived from the Dent