

ding sraight on, turned n the principle he would
ls. without expenses.

publican, Dock Road,
or a breach of the license 18th.

van, solicitor, appeared t.

stated he inspected the defendant on the evening knocked, and immediain the bar. He knocked ird time, but got no rent around to the back jumping off the wall at premises, and then he
nen. After five minutes
l by the barmaid, who men had escaped by the
out to the yard and placed against the wall.
oint measures containing

The licensee then apded ignorance of the en-returned to the bar and oint measures gone. The g questioned denied they

ce, Nora Ryan, barmaid, l nobody to the premises At 5.30 she heard knock-upstairs to look out the hen saw the Guard and When the Guard knocked
g up in the bar, but there n the premises. No men back wall.

ahilly, the licensee, said when the Guard called, en in the bar at all that she knew, there was nomises after 5 p.m. ismised the case with a

VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Enclosed Retreat

d Retreat annually orgasociety of St. Vincent de ear be held from Satur-h July, to Monday morn-at Mungret College, and ble opportunity, both for time and spiritual profit, ake advantage of availing gements being made for assemble at the College graveside.

DEATH OF MR MARTIN GRIFFIN

The death, which we record with deep regret, took place on Sunday of Mr. Martin Griffin. He survived his wife only six months, and had not been in good health since her demise. Mr. Griffin for upwards of half a century carried on a ladies' and children's outfitting business at 12 Patrick Street. He was a very kind and considerate employer and popular citizen, with a great love of coursing. One of the original members of County Limerick Coursing Club, he was an Irish Cup nominator and kept many dogs in training, the best, Glad Neck, which won several handsome stakes. Mr. Griffin's death will be mourned by a wide circle of friends, and condolence extended to his relatives in their bereavement.

The funeral took place from St. Michael's Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery on Monday.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. M. Cooney, Mrs. G. McMahon, Mrs. D. Neiland, and Miss O'Donoghue (nieces); Mr. M. Cooney and Mr. D. Neiland (nephews-in-law).

The officiating clergy were—Rev. Fr. Carroll, Adm.; Rev. Fr. White, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Chawke, C.C.

LATE MR. S. DINEEN.

The funeral of the late Mr. Stephen Dinneen, Mount Vincent Cottages, Limerick, took place from St. Michael's Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery on Wednesday. The cortege was fully representative of all classes of the citizens, and included officials and members of the Bakers' Union, to which the deceased was organiser for very many years.

The chief mourners were:—Miss Agnes Dinneen, Miss May Dinneen (daughters); Mrs. M. Hickey (sister); Kevin Dinneen and Stephen McNamara (grandsons); Rev. Br. Ml. Dinneen, S.J., Stephen, Patrick, and Thomas Dinneen (nephews); Mrs. J. Dinneen (sister-in-law).

The clergy present were:—Rev. W. J. Carroll, Adm., St. Michael's; Rev. C. Moriarty, C.C. do.; and Rev. J. Chawke, C.C., do.

an arduous day on Thursday Feast of SS. Peter and Paul, administered the Sacrament of tion to 600 children in St Church. At the close his Lords of the dangers of bad compar regretted the tendency of boys ing to commit thefts and burg enjoined parents to be watchfu their children kept away from able company. His Lordsh counsel is opportune, and it is hoped will be taken to he Courts provide, too frequently, testimony of the evils of associa bad companions.

IMPROPER LANGUAGE.

The Bishop also addressed admonition to the children on t nant habit of using improper Invoking God's name in vain w common in the streets some y but not so now. There has be welcome change for the better Dr. Keane remarked, people di tongues to profane the Holy Na habits are easily contracted, they take root it is hard to them. "Show me your compar old saying pregnant of wisdom boy or girl who takes it to hea tain not to stray very far.

NOTABLE CENTENARY.

This year marks the fifth cen the foundation of the Confra the Sacred Cincture. Bologne has the honour of being the of the great religious orgar 1439, nearly nine years after t late of St. Augustine. In the i years the Confraternity, w charge of the Augustinian Fa spread throughout the world.
branch was established in Ir hundred years ago, and Lim fell into line. To-day there number of men and women the local branch, whose Sprit tor is the Rev. Fr. O'Donogh

THESE PEDESTRIANS.

Pedestrians who are a dange selves and a source of wo numerous in Limerick than city. They take no heed step footpath, and cross the road downcast, as if looking for 1