

OF IMPORTANCE.

extreme opposition of to the representations matters such as the ral of Lady Teachers" time to qualify for full "page of Increments" successful teachers because me paper qualifications quired; to the "Totally to heat and clean rule requiring lady at marriage, it was und to forge ahead, and esources of the organi- settlement is won on vell as on restoration of salary.

d from the local T.D's. aid in the matter were Committee.

al success in the case of partment, in which the licated, was received as

ATIONS TO RETIRED EACHER.

tulations were extended ll, N.T., Foynes, on his had long been a faithful organisation, a success- a good Gael, ever gen- to the G.A.A. in Lime- the best wishes of his for a long and happy ement from labours he well.—A. H. FitzGibbon, espard, who has for the acted as Honorary Sec- P.Y.M.A. Association, has from the position, and of his services has been President of the Associa-was celebrated last week 1 dinner in his honour, me of his fellow-members e Association's hall.

ANT FUNCTION

aid for thirty. Mr. J. E. l, and Mr. Despard sat at In proposing the first ening, "The Guest of the

ESTEEMED CITIZEN

Late Mr David Naughton

Very sincere and widespread regret has been occasioned by the death of Mr. David Naughton, which took place on 28th December at his residence, 3 Shelbourne Terrace, Thomondgate, Limerick. He had been ill for a considerable time and his death was not unexpected.

The deceased was brother of Sister Mary Cleophas Naughton, of the Convent of Mercy, Pittsburgh, and cousin of Sister Mary Compassion Naughton, of the Good Shepherd Convent, Baltimore, Md. Possessed of an amiable and retiring disposition, the deceased was a most kindly and highly esteemed citizen. He was a member of the Royal Irish Constabulary, and during his period of service won the respect and friendship of all who came in contact with him. Deep sympathy will be extended to the family in their great bereavement.

The funeral, which took place on Friday, 30th December, from St. Munchin's Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, was large and representative in character.

The prayers at the graveside were said by Very Rev. Canon O'Dwyer, P.P., V.F., St. Munchin's; Rev. T. Mortell, C.C., do., and Rev. E. McCarthy, C.C., do.

Mass Cards were sent by the following—Mrs. Naughton and family, Mrs. B. Kelly, Miss Sarah Kennedy, Mr. P. A. McCarthy, Mr. P. McCarthy.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. Naughton (wife); Patrick, Gussie, and Richard (sons); Mr. and Mrs. P. Doherty, Mooresfort; Miss H. Burke, do.; Mrs. D. O'Donnell, Oola; Mr. E. O'Donnell, do.; Mr. W. Quirke, do.; Mr. and Mrs. D. Walsh, Cluggin; Miss H. Walsh, do.; Mr. R. Walsh, do. (relatives).

POPULAR OFFICIAL

Transferred on Promotion.

On the occasion of his transfer on promotion to Cork, Mr. J. Carroll, G.W.R. Agent, Limerick, was the recipient of a handsome presentation from

For the defence, e by a number of driver they drove tractors Cement Factory at M experienced the slight had never been an loaded trailer.

Answering Mr. Dod Company, Mr. J. J. Department, G.S.R., tons of cement had from the Cement Fac tons of beet had be tractor and trailer, a been an accident. Ir tons was not an e caused no danger.

Cross-examined, th did not agree with th Connolly, when he s tribution of the load stituted a danger.

The Justice said th Order the defendant reasonably foresee th accident before the p sustained. The evid the effect that there accident, and the (reasonably foresee an circumstances he v summons.

NEIGHBOU

Alleged

Row in Dying

At Ballyneety Dis day,

Sarah and Mary summoned John C assault.

There was a cross against Sarah O'B Mr. T. E. O'Don for the complainan Kelly, solr., for th Sarah O'Brien st sister were in the Moroney, who lived