

arded the wonderful privilege alled upon to serve the Ponti-Mass during the Coronation of Our Holy Father, Pope

ZEPPELIN OFF SCOTTISH COAST.

hip which was sighted off the and Aberdeenshire coasts on was identified by two 'planes 612th Squadron of the Auxilforce at Dyce, near Aberdeen, of Zeppelin.

pelin was about 20 miles east enshire, and was travelling in esterly direction when she was by the two 'planes near Dyce. ship was first seen a number of Stonehaven, travelling slowly -easterly direction. The Coast-Aberdeen also saw the airship, unable to identify it owing to e from the land.

MINISTER TO GERMANY.

THE APPOINTMENT OF DR. T. J. KIERNAN.

of Minister of Eire to Ger-been rendered vacant by the
of Mr Charles Bewley, who ied the position since 1933. Beto Berlin Mr Bewley was Free ister at the Vatican.

ceeded Professor Binchy, who to take up the Chair of Roman in the National University.

ley's successor at Berlin in all y will be Dr. T. J. Kiernan, of the Irish Broadcasting Ser-is shortly to retire from that e-enter the Diplomatic Service.

meroy, and his son, of Mel-aim to have invented a new bullet which will destroy raidaft in war time.

each other.

One was Mr. John Montgomery, Chief Inspector, Dominion Protection Company, Montreal; the other, Mr. William Montgomery, Newbliss, Co. Monaghan, who was on a visit to his daughter, Mrs.
Machaffey, Blacklion, Co. Louth, when his brother arrived at Newbliss unexpectedly, in search of him. Disappointed, the brother from Canada was on his way back to Blacklion, having met none who recognised him.

While in the train at Enniskillen, he made enquiries about the journey from a man who had previously passed him unnoticed in the corridor.

When they began talking they discovered they were brothers.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

A sad and fatal accident occurred near Ballybrood, Caherconlish, on the evening of the Munster Fair, when a man named O'Shea, an employee of Mr. T. W. W.
Bennett on his farm at Cloverfield, was knocked from his bicycle and sustained fatal injuries.

It is believed that O'Shea was leading a horse and that he either got entangled in the leading rein, or else the animal shied and bolted, knocking the man against a tree.

O'Shea, who was unmarried, lived with his sister near Cloverfield. He was about fifty years of age.

FISHING FATALITY.

Young Man Drowned in the Feale.

While flood fishing in the Feale, on Thursday morning, a young man named James Walsh, aged 20, son of a widow, Mrs John Walsh of Ahane, who resides the river, below Feale Bridge, on the Kerry side, fell into the river and was drowned.

for curing and differentiation
slaughter-house
seven hundre slaughtered la nations totalle nine, represent of food unfit
There appears
tion of dairies and it looks a valuable insti boratory, has b

BANK HOLIDAY

Weather pro-
day are reassu-
tions were plea-
The seaside m-when blue ski-
and one may rick people a Monday, and t and Ballybunio
the holiday at find the aquat-
stimulus, while racing de luxe
to Mallow.
cursions to alplementary T
will be, a big is essential in

STRAND HOUSE

Strand Hous
to have the at has no archi stands on an nice view dov closed, rather Road was enc
an old buildin
years was own
Ferguson, Ma
J. Bannatyne
late Senator C century ago.
time that the
Dr. O'Dwyer,
the Episcopal