
Found Dead in Bed

An aged man named Kelly, living alone in Market Alley, was found dead in bed on Thursday morning. When the deceased had not been seen about for some days a report was made to the Guards, who on receiving no response to their knocking forced the door. Deceased had been dead about three days and death was due to natural causes.
