

The Late Mr. D. O'Donovan

---

The death, which occurred on Saturday at Belmont, Douglas Road, Cork, of Mr Daniel O'Donovan, was heard of in Limerick with deep regret. The deceased gentleman carried on business as an extensive tobacconist, etc, at 17 O'Connell street, Limerick for close on 50 years, and during that long span was held in the highest esteem as a most estimable citizen. A little over twelve months he retired from business, and went to reside in Cork. In early life he was a prominent member of the Limerick Boat Club, and ever took a keen interest in aquatics. We wish to join with the citizens in extending our most sincere sympathy to his widow and family in their affliction.

Requiem Mass for the deceased's soul was celebrated at St Munchin's Church on Monday morning, the funeral taking place immediately after to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

All the old friends and citizens were there to pay their last tribute of respect, the cortege being a very representative one and of most imposing dimensions.

The chief mourners were—Mrs Gertrude O'Donovan (wife), Gerard, Brendan and Vincent (sons), Gwennie, Irene and Mrs J H Hannan (daughters); J H Hannan (son-in-law); Mrs G O'Donovan (daughter-in-law); Philip O'Donovan and T O'Leary (cousins).

Mass cards were sent by the following—Maureen and Helen, Angela and Michael McE'roy, Philip O'Donovan, Mrs Nolan and family, Ivan and Millie Harris, Lena Kelly, Andrew and Mrs Egan, Jennie Power, P J McCarthy, N.T, Glin; Maureen Murphy, Harry and Alice (Chicago), etc., etc.

Wreaths were sent from loving wife, Gertrude; to beloved father, Gerard and Maureen; to dad, Gertie and Darby; to dear papa, Brendan and Eta; to darling daddy, Gwen and Irene; from loving sons Vince and Ted; from Violet and George.

---