Death of Mr E. Reidy, Ballingarry

West Limerick has lost one of its earliest pioneers in the G.A.A. by the death of Mr Edward Reidy, Ballyelan, which occurred recently to the sad grief of a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. Deceased was brother of Mr James Reidy, of "The Gaelic American," New York, and of the late Mr John Reidy, writer and authority on local history. Deceased was a prominent and well known member of the G.A.A. about forty years ago.

Messrs J Power, E Fitzgibbon, J Cahill and T Callaghan, fellow hurlers of the deceased, bore the remains to the local cemetery, and the cortege was one of the largest and most representative seen in the district for many years. Rev M O'Brian, F.R.; Rev Fr Kelly, S.O.; and Rev Fr O'Keefe, C.O., officiated at the graveside.
