
Limerick Priest

Dies in Antipodes

After a long illness, the Very Rev Patk D Hennessy died at Mens House Hospital, Melbourne, Australia, recently. The Dean served the Church in a number of Tasmanian centres, and several churches bear memorials to his work.

The late Dean Hennessy was born at Kilfinane, county Limerick, in 1873. He had a distinguished career at All Hallows College, Dublin, where he was ordained in 1897.
