

Patriot's Mother

Death of Mrs M Roche

Mrs Margaret Roche, of Mernoline, Templeglance, Co. Wick, died in her 85th year. She was mother of Mr John Roche, a member of the West Limerick IRA which fought against the Tans. He was captured and interned for twelve months. The funeral to Abbeydale was extremely large. The prayers were recited by Rev J Kelly, P.P., and the chief mourners were Maurice, Jas and Kathleen (sons and daughter).
