

Well-Known in Limerick

Death of Rev. Fr. McCann, C.S.S.R.

The Rev James McCann, O.S.B., a prominent member of the Redemptorist Order, died at Warrenpoint, Co Down, on Wednesday. He was a fluent preacher and conducted missions throughout Ireland and England for many years. Born in 1871 at Coalisland, Co. Tyrone, he was professed in the Order in 1896, and was ordained priest in 1903. He was in charge of the novices of lay brothers of the Order at Limerick and filled the office of Provincial Procurator.