

Distinguished Nun Dead

The death has taken place of Sister Aquinas O'Brien, of the Little Company of Mary, Limerick. Deceased lady was a native of Clogheen, Co. Tipperary, and entered religion over 50 years ago. During the greater part of her life Sister Aquinas was attached to St. John's Hospital, Limerick, and will be long and gratefully remembered by the poor of Limerick for her wonderful skill in the surgery attached to that institution. The interment, which was private, took place in the cemetery of St. John's Convent, following Office and Requiem Mass. Rev D Gill, O.C., Chaplain to the Community, conducted the ceremonies, at which Mess Rev De Colbert, Bishop of Port Elizabeth, South Africa, and Most Rev De Maherry, retired Bishop of Capetown attended. The Mayor (Ald. D Beach, F.R.) was also present at the obsequies.
