KILFINANE ITEMS

(From Our Correspondent).

Fatal Accident.

While cycling in the direction of his home on the night of Monday, 28th ult., Mr. Edmond Barrett, Gotoon Bridge, was in collision with a pedestrian and was thrown heavily on to the road. He was removed to Croom Hospital, where he died last Saturday night. An inquest was held on Monday, after which the remains were brought to St. Andrew's Church, Kilfinane. Deepest sympathy is extended to the wife and young family in their very sad bereavement.

Recent Wedding.

The marriage was solemnised recently in S.S. Peter and Paul's Church, Cork, between Lieut. Richard F. O'Shaughnessy, youngest son of the late Mr. Michael C. and Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, Main Street, Kilfinane, and Grace Helena, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Freely, Queen's Park, London, W., and of St. Alban's, Herts. The ceremony was performed with Nuptial Mass by the Very Rev. Canon Fehilly P.P. Their many friends wish the young pair many years of wedded bliss.

The Dramatic Class.

Last year, it will be remembered, the local Dramatic Class scored a signal success in the New Hall, when they played before a highly appreciative audience that captivating comedy, "Paul Twym-ing." The general performance reflected the greatest credit on the entire cast, the members, without exception, interpreting their exacting parts with the most facile accomplishment. At the moment the members are preparing "The Jailbird," the production of which is eagerly looked forward to.
