

non—It is very hard to under-
it could be a failure.

Chairman said there was no
y they could not start a poulin a small way for which the of the Department would now
d. He believed it would be an proposition no matter what ter might say.

alshe—I think so, especially esent conditions with the price o high.

id Steward was asked to report possibility of establishing a poultry farm in the Institu-

VISITING DENTIST.

it to notice, Mr. Roche moved salary of Mr. T. Colbert, B.D., surgeon-dentist to the Institu-increased in view of the extra posed on him.

Donnell seconded, and support-motion Mr. McAuliffe said that ert's work had been consider-eased owing to the increase in ber of patients.

vin said that the present salary in keeping with the amount of was doing. The amount was very small scale for a pro-man.

e proposition of Mr. Hennessy, by Mr. Hurley, it was unaniagreed to increase the salary to £70 per year.

SANCTION REFUSED.

er was read from the Department sanction to a proposal to increase ry of Mr. Joseph Lee, mechanical in the Institution.

McAuliffe said that Mr. Lee was a ficient officer and it was most on the part of the Department to sanction. He proposed that the for the constituency be asked to themselves in the matter.

proposition was agreed to unani-

water.

FOUGHT IN THE I.R.A.

—oo—

LATE MR. EDWARD BARRETT, KILFINANE

Deep regret (writes our Kilfinane Correspondent) was occasioned by the death (already briefly announced in our columns) of Mr. Edmond (Tony) Barrett, which took place in Croom Hospital following a cycling accident. Deceased, who was a general favourite with all sections of the people, took a prominent part in the Anglo-Irish struggle. He joined the Volunteers in 1914 and later took part in the attacks on Kilmallock and Ballylanders R.I.C. Barracks. As a member of East Limerick Brigade Flying Column, he took part in many an engagement, including the destruction of a British aeroplane which was brought down near Kilfinane. No truer, more steadfast, more loyal or more lovable man ever breathed. His remains were interred at Kilfinane with full military honours on Tuesday of last week, in the presence of one of the largest crowds ever seen at the cemetery. Feeling the cold shadow which his demise casts over the parish, we mourn with his wife and family in their sorrow and with them we will always revere the memory of the dear departed one.

KILLED IN ACTION

Intimation has been received by his relatives from the British War Office (writes our Charleville correspondent) that Private James Collins, who was attached to one of the British regiments in France, was killed in action during the withdrawal from Dunkirk. The late Private Collins was a son of Mr. Edmond Collins, Cregane, Charleville.

DANDR

for many years
becomes "scur
numbers and f
out. Each fall
hair is serious
baldness result
The most effec
Pomade positiv
the growth and

J. F.

Tel. 1. 136

FU
GREA
RO/
Phone 1

A bequest of £5
a statue to Barba
"my quite perfect
never failed to n

Infants, Invalids and the Aged e's Food is so delicious and nourish-that Babies love it and grow Invalids quickly regain health and th.
ged enjoy increased vitality.

Leave's Food

Sale Everywhere
1/8, 3/9