

INCREASE DEMAND

Mental Hospital Attendants

Mental Hospital Committee, yesterday, adjourned in consideration for a 30 per cent. increase by the staff.

It was proposed that one should get a £10 increase, and another £15.

When the application be advertised, Walsh said the county was unable to meet their obligations had to meet an increase of £40,000 this year. The proposal was defeated by a majority of 12 to 5.

IN CO. TIPPERARY.

The Irish Red Cross for Tipperary was formed at a meeting held at the residence of Ven. Archdeacon F., who presided prominently. Most Rev. Dr. of Killaloe, Most Rev. bishop of Cashel, wrote a letter of support.

HEAVILY INJURED.

John Kelly, Glenroe, Kilfinane, was knocked unconscious by a motor truck while cycling by a market garden and took him to a doctor for treatment he was re-admitted to Hospital. He was very in his management.

Mayor—Yes; it is most creditable to the Manager.

MAYORAL ELECTION.

The Council fixed Thursday, June 27, for the holding of the Statutory Quarterly meeting for the election of Mayor.

On the proposition of Ald. Reidy, seconded by Mr. Dalton, a rate of 22s. 6d. in the £ for the ensuing year was adopted.

Ald. Goodwin said that in bringing about a substantial reduction of the rate, the City Manager had done excellent work, and he wished to congratulate him on the very favourable financial position.

Mr. Hartney—I would also like to add my sincere commendation of praise for the Manager's work. The position could scarcely be better.

LATE MR. T. O'GRADY BOURKE

A citizen long associated with the commercial life of Limerick, Mr. Thomas O'Grady Bourke, died at his home, Geraldine Villas, during the week-end. He was 75, and his death was unexpected. Mr O'Grady Bourke was for forty-five years a member of the clerical staff of the Condensed Milk Co., where he held an important position. In the discharge of his duties he displayed ability, and an abundance of those qualities which won the confidence and respect of his employers and colleagues. His quiet and unassuming, yet cheery disposition made him numerous friends, who deeply regret his passing, and sympathise with his widow and family in their sorrow.

refused sanction. Limerick Mental Hospital Committee to purchase land as a sort of playground for the inspectors who visit by the proposition of the Corporation. The proposed scheme, if carried out, ratepayers are to be consulted further of the matter. John Gubbins, who is an adjunct of the committee, might be just as well as "Sergeant

COMING EVENING

Mr. J. M. Flood will have a full evening of pictures at the theatre the Victor Waddell. It will be a profitable collection will be held during the week, for the beaux and beauties. In the evening hold a reception of the Theatre Players they are performing this week. The Justices interest in culture should be stressed. It is a Limerick Art Gallery number of their pictures for exhibition in

HAD £2,800 : LI

Although he is financially nothing but a miser, he possessed only one son, John Langan, a Glasgow man, 53, was found with his pockets containing